

Constantin Xenakis

“Lack of communication”

Presented by: Anastasia Tsetoulidou, art teacher

During Basque meeting (first day) our school's art teacher conducted an art lesson to students of the host school and to students and teachers from participating countries.

The lesson was dedicated to the Greek artist Constantin Xenakis and his work named "Lack of communication"

After a short description of Xenakis' life and work, students created their own works according to Xenakis motif under the guidance of Miss Tsetoulidou

